DETAILED ACTION

Specification

It suggested to incorporate a subtitle as "Cross-Related Applications" or "Continuing Data" on page 1 and insert the continuing data below this subtitle.

Abstract

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure. The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details. The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

The use of the word phrase "the present invention" in the abstract should be avoided.

Claim Objection

Claims 1, 53 are objected to because of the following informalities: it is suggested to substitute "al" claims 1, 52, lines 20 and 3 respectively by -- at -- . Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Art Unit: 2819

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 – 53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. The word phrases “constructing”, “constructor”, “constructing device” is recited throughout claims 1, 7, 10 - 12, 15, 20, 25, 27, 29, 32, 37, 38, 45, 49, 51, 52. The use of such word phrases renders the claims indefinite, vague and unclear.
4. Also, claim 29 refers to the claim as “the present invention”. The use of such word phrase should be avoided.
5. All the dependent claims are automatically rejected due to the fact that they depend on claims that are rejected under 112, 2nd.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. (See PTO-892).
